September 20, 2011

Japan Commodity Clearing House Co., Ltd

Notice of Redesign of JCCH Website

We are pleased to announce that we will redesign our website on September 20, 2011.

The current website URL (<http://www.jcch.co.jp/i/>) will not be changed, but please note that the site structure will be changed.

The new website will include rich information for not only investors, Clearing Participants and Commodity Futures Trading Firms but also other related organization such as Commodity Exchange and mass media.

We will continue maintaining a customer-friendly website.
